DOUBLE HOLDUP.

Robbers Take Gold Watch From Man and Purse From Woman.

After robbing a man named Kliff at a gold watch at Twenty-fifth street and Grant avenue last night, two thieves turned upon Mrs. James Cassin and her daughter, who were passing at the time, and seized Mrs. Cassin's purse. They disappeared before assistance reached the two women. The purse contained only 30 cents.

Kliff claimed that the robbers stopped him as he was about to enter a lodging house and said they were looking for a man who had been following him all day. They robbed him while pretending to be taking him to the police station. He was released after Mrs. Cassin and her daughter turned upon Mrs. Cassin and her daughter.

BITES OFF MAN'S EAR.

Peacemaker in Saloon Brawl Is Worst Sufferer.

For biting off the ear of a man named Cullen, Jack Terry of Roy, Utah, is in the Ogden jail. With him are Columbus Terry, his brother, and Walter Smithers, who took part in the incidents leading up to the loss of Cullen's ear. Smithers engaged in a fight with Columbus Terry in the Exchange saloon. Cullen interfered to stop the fracas. This displeased Jack Terry and, with his teeth, he removed Cullen's ear. A doctor sewed it on again.

WHAT PETERS GOT.

Given a Meal, He Steals Hunting Boots and Goes to Jail.

William Peters showed yesterday that he was a most ungrateful fellow by stealing a pair of $9 hunting boots from the home of Henry Emmett Lincoln avenue after Mrs. Emmett had given the fellow a good warm meal. Mrs. Emmett, who discovered the loss as soon as the fellow departed, overtook Peters and turned him over to the police. Judge Murphy gave Peters thirty days on the municipal rock pile.

Three Italians Arrested.

Three Italians were arrested at the Red Sea saloon on Grant avenue yesterday afternoon by Officers Vance, Chambers and Burke. One of the trio was charged with drunkenness and the other two with vagrancy. The fellow charged with having two large quantities of "booze" on board sought the officers, claiming the other two men had robbed him. They were all locked up at police headquarters and the case is being further investigated.

GIRL MAKES ROBBERS RUN

Ruth Gaston, Aged 16, Drives Three Marauders From Her Parents' Home.

Ruth Gaston, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Gaston, 236 Adams avenue, proved herself a heroine yesterday afternoon when she discovered three thieves in the house and drove them away.

"I didn't mind it then, but I shivered a bit afterward," said Miss Gaston, after her exciting experience.

All of the occupants of the house excepting Miss Gaston had left some time before. As the girl emerged from the bathroom she came face to face with three men in the hallway.

"Does Peterson live here?" said one of the men, addressing the girl. "No," said the girl, "and you drop that purse and get out of here quick."

With that the fellow who had the purse threw it at the girl and the trio of robbers ran from the house by the front door.

Miss Gaston called the police, but no trace of the thieves was found.

An investigation showed that the robbers had taken nothing except a .38-caliber revolver. Miss Gaston said that one of the men had called at the house earlier in the day, when she was alone.

When he came up to the house he was surprised to find her there and said: "Oh, are you home?"

He then asked to be permitted to fix the telephone, but the girl would not let him in the house. Apparently he and his confederates saw the other members of the family leave the place and thought that they would not be interrupted.

Jess Williams and Charles McCartney were arrested last night in connection with the Gaston robbery. Miss Gaston has identified Williams as one of the men she saw in the house.

A man named Jennings has also been taken into custody on suspicion. The police think that he may have been the third of the thieves.

LABOR DAY SERVICES.

Rev J. E. Carver to Preach to Labor Unions.

At 8 o'clock this evening special labor day services will be held at the First Presbyterian church. President George of the American Federation of Labor has issued a letter to the various churches, in which he calls upon them to observe May 10 as "Labor's Memorial Sunday."

For the occasion a special musical program has been arranged and Rev. John Williams will deliver a sermon on "The Debt Which Labor Owes to the World and the World Owes to Labor."

Several of the local unions will attend the services in a body.

Examination Dates Changed.

The dates for holding the final examinations for the schools of Weber county were changed by the board of education yesterday from Monday and Tuesday, May 12-13 to Friday and Saturday, May 15-16.

At the teachers' institute yesterday Principal D. E. Chyd of the Ogden high school delivered a talk on "The Social Aspect of Education."

Ogden Society.

Miss Dorothy Summers is spending a few days in Salt Lake with friends.

Miss Laura Wheeling is home from St. Louis.

Miss Rita Parker has as a guest Miss Hattie Tracy of Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hodson of Provo were visitors in Ogden during the week.

Miss Virginia Randall of Salt Lake is the guest of Miss Pearl Roberts.

Mrs. V. L. Carney and daughter Edna are on the coast.

Miss Stella Warren entertained about thirty friends informally at five hundred on Tuesday evening.

Miss Alice Reynolds, a member of the B. Y. U. faculty at Provo, was in Ogden yesterday on a business trip.

The young ladies of the Fifth ward gave a dancing party last night at the amusement hall.

Miss Ethel Miller is back from a short trip to Denver, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Edwards.

Miss Arvilla Fielding was hostess on Wednesday evening at the Kensington. The rooms were gay with spring blossoms and plumosa and the color idea was carried out in white and green.

Miss Kathryn Barker entertained the members of her card club on Monday evening. Prizes were won by Miss Jessie Fisher and John Barker.

Miss Verna Carter entertained about twenty friends at cards on Thursday evening. The game was sixty-three and the prizes were won by Miss Emma Patrick and Harry King.

Miss Isabel Richardson was hostess on Thursday afternoon at the Kensington. The decorations were spring blossoms and carnations. Sixteen guests were present to meet the hostess.

The marriage of Mrs. Maude Carver Shurtliff, daughter of J. S. Carver, to John McCarty, of Salt Lake, took place on Wednesday at the Methodist church of this city performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. McCarty left for California on a wedding trip and later they will make their home in Denver.

On Thursday evening the Second Ward Dramatic club presented the little drama entitled "Stock Exchange," at the amusement hall. The characters were all well sustained.

The "old folks" concert given on Monday evening by the ladies of the Congregational church was one of the most successful of the week. The demand for a repetition of the concert has been so insistent that the committee has consented to repeat it Wednesday evening.

A pleasant social event of Friday evening was the card party given by Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Carney at their home on Twenty-sixth street. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Joseph Scofield, Willard Scofield, Helen Scofield, A. L. Seville, W. Ure, H. F. McCune, J. L. Herlick, Frank Stevens, M. S. Browning, W. G. Patrick, Joseph Decker, Ezra Rich, Joseph Wright, Joseph G. McFarlane, Robert Burton, George Davis, Charles Woodruff and C. F. Osgood, and Albert Scofield.

WALKER BEHIND SCHEDULE.—Mrs. Elizabeth S. Johns of Pleasant View, in a complaint prepared by County Attorney N. J. Harris, yesterday charged J. L. Rice of the same settlement with battery for having struck her little son. Rice pleaded not guilty in police court yesterday and was released on his own recognizance.

WALKER BEHIND SCHEDULE.—Mrs. Elizabeth S. Johns of Pleasant View, in a complaint prepared by County Attorney N. J. Harris, yesterday charged J. L. Rice of the same settlement with battery for having struck her little son. Rice pleaded not guilty in police court yesterday and was released on his own recognizance.

RAIN DOES GOOD.—The rain of the past two days is said to have done an immeasurable amount of good for the farmers of the county whose crops have been suffering from the want of rain for some weeks. It is stated that in some sections sugar beets had to be plowed up after they had withered away during the drought.

IDLEWILD HOTEL PLANS.—According to the Pocatello Tribune Harry Baugh of that city is to have charge of the Idlewild hotel in Ogden canyon. It is announced that Mr. Baugh and E. A. Burton have secured a five-year lease from Mr. Bamberger, who built the hotel. It is expected that the hotel will open for business on Decoration day.

YOUNG NEBRASKAN DIES.—Arthur E. Lindberg, 23 years old, of Bristow, Neb., where his father, a well-to-do farmer, resides, died at the Salvation Army shelter in this city Friday night of pneumonia. Lindberg was on his way from California to Nebraska when he was taken ill here a week ago. The body will be shipped to Nebraska for burial.

BANQUET FOR CANNERS.—What is believed to be preliminary steps looking toward the organization of a state body of canners kind was given at the banquet given to the canners of Utah at the Weber club on Friday evening. The spread was given by the Continental Can company of Chicago through its representative, C. A. Suydam, who presided as host. There were between twenty-five and thirty guests.

responds to the lock on her safety deposit box was discovered in the basement.

For the first time since Sheriff Smutz began work on the case, the body of Mrs. Gunness was found at that point.

The search for bodies is to be abandoned for a few days at least, the sheriff announcing that he will endeavor to secure additional evidence regarding the identity of the corpse found in the basement. With this object in view, he has employed Louis Schultz, who was formerly a miner, to stoke the ashes in the boiler, in addition to the team of metallic relics of Mrs. Gunness will be found. The gold filling which she is said to have had in her teeth, the sheriff said, is an especial object of this search.

Search Not Abandoned.

The sheriff is not convinced that he has found all of the bodies which have been buried on the farm, but he has not fully determined the method by which he will conduct further explorations.

The crowds of visitors to the farm and the city were augmented today. In the city there was a constant stream of morbid sightseers visiting the morgues, where ten of the fourteen bodies are lying.

The sheriff received today several inquiries from outside points regarding missing persons who may have been

Coffee Toppers as Bad as Others.

"A friend of our family who lived with us a short time was a great coffee drinker, and a continual sufferer with dyspepsia. He admitted that coffee disagreed with him, but you know how the coffee drinker will hold on to his coffee, even if he knows it causes dyspepsia.

"One day he said to me that Postum Food Coffee had been recommended and suggested that he would like to try it and in a short time his dyspepsia disappeared. He continued using the Postum, and in about three months gained twelve pounds.

"My husband is a practicing physician and regards Postum as most healthful of all beverages. He never drinks coffee, but is very fond of Postum. In fact, all of our family are, and we never think of drinking coffee any more." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

and figures of eminent physicians of this country and Great Britain, I find that the body of the woman is almost five inches shorter than the body of Mrs. Gunness would be in under similar circumstances. The fire, of course, caused the body to lose weight, but the general physical outline of the woman would remain.

Woman Had Vicious Look.

Mrs. Gunness was a woman of unusual appearance. She was large, bony, powerful looking, with square jaw and black eyes. She was a woman who would attract attention anywhere. She wore a large fur coat during the winter and her long strides, together with her remarkable countenance and her generally vicious appearance gave her an aspect that was almost terrifying.

Deafness Cured By New Discovery.

Was Told Jennie Was Gone.

"In the morning I insisted to see Jennie and her mother told me that she has been awake almost all night and that she was still asleep and did not want to be disturbed.

"I was sent on an errand late that afternoon and when I got back I was told that Jennie was gone.

"I wrote to her, but I gave the two letters to Mrs. Gunness. I never received to Michigan City, and still there was no horse, but when I got back another cousin was missing and no one around the place had seen him since.

"Moo's trunk was in the Gunness home, July 11, 1907, when I left the place. His was the only one. There were about fifteen other trunks, and one room was packed full of all kinds of men's clothes. Mrs. Gunness said that the cousins had left their clothes and that she was not certain that they would be back for them.

"In the light of what happened recently I can see that many bloody and mysterious things were going on right under my nose.

Her Private Graveyard.

Mrs. Gunness had a little place fenced off just south of the kitchen. She never allowed any of the hands to go near it, and she was always in a rage if a man looked that way when he was passing. Two sides of it was barricaded with barrels and boxes, shutting off the view, but from the other two sides you could see that it looked like a garden in spots.

That Ray Lamphere, the lover of Mrs. Gunness, as an under arrest, charged with being an accomplice in the poisoning of the murders, was the only man that ever enjoyed her continued affections, and that he was the only one who saw her money on, is the belief of Fred Greening, 28, the painter brother of Emil Greening, who was employed on the place.

"As many as twelve men came and went mysteriously while I was painting the home," said Greening in conclusion.
